

GIBSON ENERGY INC.

Code of Conduct and Ethics

A. INTRODUCTION

Ethical conduct in its business practices is critical to the development and maintenance of the reputation and credibility of Gibson Energy Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, "Gibson" or the "Company"). Gibson expects its directors, officers, employees, contractors and consultants (collectively "Personnel") to operate in accordance with the highest ethical standards in their conduct of business for and on behalf of the Company.

Gibson is committed to the following values:

- 1. Safety and Environment – Safety is core to how Gibson works. Gibson strives for operational excellence and continuous improvement for the health and safety of it's people and the protection and sustainability of the communities and environment where it works.
- 2. People – Gibson relies on developing, managing, and promoting a diverse workforce to ensure the right talent and culture is in place to execute on it's strategy and become the partner of choice.
- 3. Integrity – Gibson is fair, truthful and does what it says. Gibson earns the trust of our colleagues, customers, business partners, shareholders and communities by operating with the highest ethical standards.
- 4. Executional Focus – Gibson is focused and disciplined in it's actions to ensure achievement of it's strategic goals.

These values are embodied within this Code of Conduct and Ethics (the "Code"). This Code will guide Personnel in identifying and managing business situations, allowing Gibson to conduct business in a responsible and ethical manner, treating those with whom it deals (including, without limitation the Company's securityholders, customers, suppliers, competitors and Personnel) with fairness and respect. The Code is not intended to address every issue that may arise, but rather to set out basic principles with which Gibson expects you to comply.

This Code has been adopted by the board of directors (the "Board") of Gibson. The Board reserves the right to add to, modify and rescind all or any portion of this Code at any time and from time to time. This Code governs in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Code and any other materials distributed by Gibson. If any law conflicts with a policy set out in this Code, you must comply with the law.

B. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

Gibson will conduct its business activities in compliance with all laws, regulations and requirements that are applicable wherever Gibson operates. Personnel will inform themselves respecting the laws and regulations applicable to Gibson's activities. Gibson Personnel are also required to become familiar with, and agree to comply with all applicable Gibson policies as set out in the Gibson Policy Manual, available on the Gibson Intranet, or through their supervisor.

If there are any questions or uncertainties about the application or interpretation of laws, regulations, standards or policies that direct Gibson's operations, Personnel should direct questions to their Supervisor, Manager, Business Unit Executive or the Legal Department.

C. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A conflict of interest occurs when an individual's private interests interfere, or appear to interfere, in any way with the interests of the Company. Personnel must not participate in any activity or situation that may result in a conflict or perceived conflict between personal interests and the interests of Gibson. Personnel should avoid situations or activities that could compromise, or appear to compromise, their judgment, objectivity or ability to act in the best interest of Gibson. Activities that could give rise to potential conflicts of interest are prohibited unless specifically approved in advance by the President and CEO or the Board.

The following is a non-exhaustive list of examples where a conflict of interest could arise:

- Financial Interest: Personnel and their families (spouse, children) will not own, control or direct a material financial interest in a supplier, contractor, competitor or in any entity with which Gibson does or seeks to do business.
- Customer and Supplier Relations: All customers and suppliers involved with Gibson in the purchase of goods and services should be treated fairly and with respect. Purchase decisions must be made based on objective criteria such as quality, reliability, price, delivery and service.
- Gifts, Entertainment or Bribes: Offering or receiving any gift or gratuity that may be perceived to unfairly influence a business decision should be avoided. While gifts or entertainment offered to or by persons or entities seeking to or doing business with Gibson in the ordinary course are to an extent acceptable, Personnel will exercise responsibility and objectivity in offering or accepting such gifts or entertainment. It is unacceptable to directly or indirectly offer, pay, solicit or accept bribes or engage in any activity that may appear to be improperly influencing business relations.
- External Business Activities: Personnel will not engage in any outside business activity that is deemed detrimental to the Company or conduct any external business activities on Gibson premises or during normal business hours.

- Government and Community Relations: Any Gibson support to political organizations requires the approval of the President and CEO. Personnel who engage in personal political activities must do so on their own time and not on behalf of the Company.
- Personal Relationships: Personnel will avoid any arrangement or circumstance (including personal relationships) that may compromise their ability to act in the best interests of Gibson. Officers, directors and employees of Gibson will not directly supervise anyone with whom they are engaged in a personal relationship.

Personnel are expected to use common sense and good judgment in determining whether a conflict of interest does or potentially could exist. In the event of an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest, Personnel should speak to their Supervisor, Manager or Business Unit Executive; and, in the event of any Business Unit Executive, the President and CEO; and in the event of the President and CEO, the Board. Waivers can only be granted by the Board or in certain circumstances by the President and CEO.

D. CONFIDENTIALITY AND DISCLOSURE

During employment with Gibson, Personnel may have access to or obtain information that is non-public, confidential, of value to Gibson's competitors or that may be damaging to the Company if not properly disclosed. Personnel may also gain access to information about suppliers and customers with whom the Company conducts business.

Personnel have a responsibility to protect this confidential information about Gibson or the companies it does business with against theft, loss, unauthorized access or use, alteration or misuse.

Personnel must maintain the confidentiality of information entrusted to them by Gibson, or that otherwise comes into their possession in the course of their employment. Confidential information will only be disclosed if such disclosure is legally required or if specific authorization is given.

All non-public information about Gibson, its business, its interests, including its ownership interests, and its activities ("Insider Information") is considered confidential information. The use of Insider Information relating to Gibson that has not been publicly disclosed and that if known by the general public might reasonably be expected to have a material impact on the business decision or transaction or result in a significant change in the market price or value of the Company's securities, is not only unethical and a breach of this Code, but it is also illegal.

Examples of Insider Information include, but are not limited to:

- unpublished financial results
- expansions or curtailment of operations
- operational incidents anticipated
- acquisitions or joint ventures pending
- litigation

Personnel must not speak on behalf of Gibson unless authorized to do so and should refer to the External Communications Policy for specific direction.

If Personnel are not sure whether information has been publicly disclosed, they should seek advice from their Business Unit Executive or the Legal Department.

These confidentiality obligations remain in effect even after Personnel leave their employment or engagement with Gibson.

E. EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES, HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

Gibson will ensure that all Personnel are treated with respect and dignity. Gibson will not tolerate discrimination or harassment against current or potential Personnel or those with whom it conducts business based on race, nationality, ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, gender, marital status, family status, sexual orientation, political belief or disability.

Gibson is committed to assuring fair employment, including equal treatment in hiring, training, compensation, termination and corrective actions.

Gibson will establish and maintain a safe and healthy working environment for its Personnel and conduct its operations in an environmentally responsible manner in accordance with applicable laws, regulations and industry standards. Gibson is committed to keeping its workplaces free from hazards. Threats or acts of violence or physical intimidation are prohibited. To protect the safety of all Personnel, the Company's assets, the environment, and the communities within which Gibson works, Personnel must report for work fit to perform their duties and free from the influence of any substance that could prevent them from conducting their work activities safely, effectively, and in compliance with all applicable laws.

F. USE OF COMPANY PROPERTY AND RESOURCES

Gibson's corporate information, data, funds, information system assets, office equipment, tools, vehicles, supplies, facilities, services and any other assets owned or leased by the Company or that are otherwise in the Company's possession are provided and should be used for authorized business purposes only. Personnel have an obligation to protect and use Company property and resources, including proprietary information, in accordance with the principles of sensible and acceptable use. Unacceptable use will not be tolerated.

Acceptable use of Gibson resources is demonstrated when Personnel:

- ensure the confidentiality and integrity of Gibson's information
- take measures to ensure the protection of Gibson's rights, property and resources

Personal use is considered reasonable if it:

- is appropriate content
- does not present risk of violating any proprietary restrictions
- aligns with Gibson's values
- respects applicable laws
- does not interfere with daily responsibility of Personnel

Unacceptable use (personal or business related) includes when an individual acts to:

- defame, slander, harass or annoy another individual or organization, including Gibson
- partake in any illegal or unethical activity
- conduct any activity that could negatively impact Gibson or Gibson's reputation make excessive use of non-business-related internet sites
- replace personal assets (e.g. personal computer) with those of Gibson
- intentionally transmit viruses or transmit virus warnings to any recipient other than the Information Services Department
- access or exchange content that is deemed inappropriate in a professional workplace
- conduct personal commercial ventures

Personnel have the responsibility to avoid the theft, misuse, damage or waste of Company property and resources. Illegal use of Company property and resources will not be tolerated and may be subject to disciplinary action. It could also result in civil or criminal penalties. Any infractions should be reported immediately to a Supervisor or Manager or, if that will not resolve the issue, the appropriate Business Unit Executive, or the Human Resources or Legal Department. Personnel who require further information about the acceptable use of Company property and resources can obtain such information from the Company's internal website or by contacting their immediate supervisor.

G. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS

It is the Company's policy to cooperate with all governmental investigative authorities. Personnel shall retain any record, document or tangible object of the Company that is known to be the subject of an investigation or litigation.

It is a violation of this Code for Personnel to knowingly alter, destroy, mutilate, conceal, cover up, falsify or make a false entry in any record, document or tangible object with the intent to impede, obstruct or influence the investigation or proper administration of any matter within the jurisdiction of any federal, provincial, state or municipal department or agency, or any bankruptcy, or in relation to or contemplation of any such matter or case.

H. REPORTING FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS

The books and records of Gibson will reflect all business transactions in a timely, fair and accurate manner. All assets and liabilities of Gibson will be recorded in order to maintain accountability for them.

Compliance with the applicable generally accepted accounting principles/international financial reporting standards and the corresponding securities laws is mandatory in the preparation and disclosure of all financial transactions and information.

All business transactions shall be properly authorized, recorded and supported by accurate documentation and in reasonable detail to ensure the integrity of corporate information.

Making false, fictitious or misleading entries with respect to any business transaction is strictly prohibited.

I. COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT

All Personnel must become familiar with and agree to comply with this Code as a condition of employment, and apply it to all their business activities with, for and on behalf of Gibson.

You should read this Code carefully, ask questions of your Supervisor, Manager, Business Unit Executive or the Legal Department. The attached Annex B sets out examples of procedures available to Gibson Personnel when they encounter situations involving what they perceive to be a conflict or potential conflict to this Code.

All directors, officers, and employees of the Company in managerial or supervisory positions; or those who in the ordinary conduct of their duties have regular contact with governments or any department or agency thereof; employees whose regular duties include the selection of contractors for the provision of goods or services, or the approval of the payment of invoices; or other Personnel as requested or determined by any officer of the Company from time to time must promptly sign and return the certification attached as Annex A, acknowledging receipt of this Code to:

Gibson Energy Inc.
1700, 440 - 2nd Avenue SW
Calgary Alberta, T2P 5E9

Attention: Human Resources Department

In the event that an individual violates this Code or any of Gibson's applicable policies and procedures, immediate corrective action will be taken up to and including termination of employment or contract for services.

J. NON-COMPLIANCE REPORTING

All Personnel have the responsibility, and in some instances, the obligation, to report any violations of law, rules, regulations or actions that violate this Code. In reporting potential noncompliance, employees, contractors and consultants should, if appropriate, first raise the issue with their direct Supervisor, Manager or Business Unit Executive, who shall consult with Gibson's Legal Department or Human Resources to determine whether a conflict of interest actually exists and to recommend measures to be taken to neutralize the adverse effect of the conflict of interest reported, if such measures are available or appropriate under the circumstances.

If the individual is of the view that it would be more appropriate under the circumstances to report the potential non-compliance to a higher level, then that individual may contact Gibson's General Counsel or the Chair of the Audit Committee by contacting the Gibson EthicsLine through their confidential phone line or internet reporting system. All individuals who report non-compliance to the Gibson EthicsLine will remain anonymous and a caller will not need to identify themselves. Once an individual has reported potential non-compliance to the Gibson EthicsLine an anonymous report will be formed and provided by the Gibson EthicsLine directly to Gibson's General Counsel and the Chair of the Audit Committee.

Individuals who wish to contact the Gibson EthicsLine to report potential non-compliance can use the following methods:

- Telephone Based Reporting: an individual can speak to a Gibson EthicsLine representative 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by calling 1-888-475-0595.
- Website Based Reporting: an individual can use the internet to access the Gibson EthicsLine by going to <https://gibsonethicsline.alertline.com> or by going to Gibson's external website at www.gibsonenergy.com and clicking on the link for the Gibson EthicsLine at the bottom of the page.

Requests to remain anonymous will be respected and no retaliatory action will be taken against an individual for providing information in good faith (for further information, please refer to Gibson's Whistleblower Policy). Disciplinary actions may be taken against any personnel who violate this Code.

Any actual or potential conflict of interest involving a director or officer, or a member of such person's immediate family, must be reported by the affected person (or by others having knowledge of the existence of the actual or potential conflict of interest) to Gibson's General Counsel or the Chair of the Audit Committee, through the Gibson EthicsLine or directly, who shall promptly disclose the possible conflict of interest to the Board at the earliest time practicable under the circumstances. The possible conflict of interest will be made a matter of record, and the Board will determine whether the possible conflict of interest indeed constitutes a conflict of interest. The Board's approval will be required prior to the consummation of any proposed transaction or arrangement that is determined by the Board to constitute a conflict of interest.

Any member of the Board or any officer having a possible conflict of interest in any proposed transaction or arrangement is not permitted to vote (in the case of a member of the Board) or use his or her personal influence on the matter being considered by the Board. Any member of the Board having a possible conflict of interest is not counted in determining the quorum for consideration and vote on the particular matter. Finally, any member of the Board or any officer having a possible conflict of interest must be excused from any meeting of the Board during discussion (subject to the exception set forth in the paragraph below) and from any vote on the particular matter (in the case of an interested director). The minutes of the Board meeting should reflect the disclosure, the absence from the meeting of the interested director or officer, the abstention from voting (in the case of an interested director) and the presence of a quorum. The proposed transaction or arrangement is considered approved if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested members of the Board. The foregoing requirements do not prohibit the interested director or officer from briefly stating his or her position in the matter or from answering pertinent questions of the disinterested members of the Board, as the interested director's knowledge may be of assistance to the other Board members in their consideration of the matter.

K. WAIVERS AND AMENDMENTS

Any waiver of this Code or any amendments to this Code may be made by the Board. Waivers with respect to employees, contractors and consultants may be given by the President & CEO, who shall report any such waivers to the Board.

Any amendments to this Code of Conduct and Ethics will be disclosed to all Personnel and to the extent required by any applicable law, rule, regulation or stock exchange requirement.

L. APPROVAL

This Code has been reviewed and adopted by the Board as of the 24th day of October, 2011.

ANNEX A
CODE OF CONDUCT AND ETHICS CERTIFICATION

I have read and understand the Code of Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") of Gibson Energy Inc. ("Gibson" or the "Company"). I agree that I will comply with the policies and procedures set forth in the Code. I understand and agree that, if I am an employee of Gibson, or one of the Company's subsidiaries or affiliates, my failure to comply in all respects with Gibson's policies, including the Code, is a basis for termination for cause of my employment with Gibson and any subsidiary or other affiliate to which my employment now relates or may in the future relate.

I agree to promptly submit a report to Gibson's General Counsel or the Chair of the Audit Committee describing any circumstances in which:

1. I have reasonable basis for belief that a violation of the Code by any Personnel has occurred;
2. I have, or any member of my family has, or may have, engaged in any activity that violates the Code;
3. I have, or any member of my family has, or may have, any interest that violates the Code; and
4. I, or any member of my immediate family may be contemplating, any activity or acquisition that could be in violation of the Code.

I am unaware of any violations or suspected violations of the Code by any individual except as described below or on the attached sheet of paper. (If no exceptions are noted, please initial the space provided below.)

_____ No exceptions

To the best of my knowledge and belief, neither I nor any member of my immediate family has any interest or affiliation or has engaged in any activity, which might violate this Code or might conflict with the interest of Gibson or its subsidiaries or affiliates, except as described below or on the attached sheet of paper. (If no exceptions are noted, please initial the space provided below.)

_____ No exceptions

I am aware that this signed Certification will be filed with my personal records in Gibson's Human Resources Department.

Type or Print Name

Signature

Date

ANNEX B

CODE OF CONDUCT AND ETHICS COMPLIANCE PROCEDURES

Personnel must work together to ensure prompt and consistent action against violations of the Code. However, Personnel may encounter a situation in which it is difficult to determine how to proceed, while also complying with the Code. Since not every situation that will arise can be anticipated, it is important to have a way to approach a new question or problem. When considering these situations, Personnel should:

1. Make sure to have all the facts. In order to reach the right solution, all relevant information must be known.
2. Consider what he or she specifically is being asked to do and whether it seems unethical or improper. This will enable the individual to focus on the specific question and the alternatives he or she has.
3. Understand his or her individual responsibility and role. In most situations, there is shared responsibility. Are other colleagues informed? It may help to get other individuals involved and discuss the problem.
4. Discuss the problem with a supervisor. In many cases, supervisors will be more knowledgeable about the question and will appreciate being brought into the decision-making process. Employees should remember that it is the responsibility of supervisors to help solve problems and ensure compliance with this Code.
5. Seek help from Company resources. In the rare case where it may not be appropriate to discuss an issue with a supervisor, or where a supervisor is not available to answer a question, employees should discuss it with the local office manager, business unit executive or Human Resources manager. If that is not appropriate or if a satisfactory resolution is not obtained, concerns can be sent to Gibson's General Counsel and Chair of the Audit Committee by contacting the Gibson EthicsLine.
6. Report ethical violations in confidence and without fear of retaliation. If the situation so requires, or the individual requests, anonymity will be protected. The Company does not permit retaliation of any kind for good faith reports of ethical violations.
7. Always ask first, act later. When unsure of what to do in any situation, the individual should seek guidance and ask questions before the action in question is taken.

LETTER FROM THE CEO

June 19, 2017

Dear Gibson Employee:

Since 1953, Gibson has achieved its success by delivering the very best products and services to our customers. In order to accomplish these goals, Gibson is dedicated to conducting its business consistent with the highest standards of ethics. We have an obligation to our employees, investors, lenders, customers, suppliers and other business contacts to be honest, fair and forthright in all of our business activities.

It is critical to the continued success of our business that you carefully read the Code of Conduct and Ethics and understand its content. Please discuss any questions you may have with your Supervisor, Manager, the Human Resources Department or the Legal Department directly.

The guidelines set out in this Code are to be followed at all levels of this organization by all of our directors, officers, employees, contractors and consultants. We are relying upon you to uphold our core values and conduct our business honestly, fairly and with integrity.

Sincerely,

Signed "Steven R. Spaulding"

Steven R. Spaulding
President and Chief Executive Officer